About Marcus Kittrell

Marcus Kittrell began his carwash career at 16 and is now a prominent industry figure with more than four decades of experience. He values the collaborative nature of the carwash community, which he credits for his success.

As a partner at Mammoth Holdings, Marcus has expanded the Marc-1 Car Wash/Mammoth brands since 2018. His passion for mentorship and education is evident in his role as the International Carwash Association (ICA) president. Marcus is dedicated to fostering the growth of the younger generation and enhancing industry education.

His career highlights include shifting to a stand-alone express model carwash in 2002 and learning valuable lessons about business. His top priorities as ICA president have included delivering an exceptional trade show, developing top-tier training programs and evaluating the association's effectiveness.

Outside of work, Marcus enjoys hiking and spending time with his wife, Missy, in the Tennessee mountains. His colleagues describe him as genuine, inspirational, and always willing to share his knowledge and support.
